All expenses covering transportation from the airport to the hotel and to the Congresshall on competition day will be taken care of by the organization.

On the day of competition the teams will also receive free breakfast and lunch with compliments of the organization.

Roundtrip airfare, hotel and meals are responsibility of your team.

We will try to make everything as affordable as possible.

In competition the electronic body protectors will be used to make the whole a fair and fluent day of competition.

Attached is a list with the weight divisions and detailed information.
